

Safety and Security In Your Hometown

With all of the turmoil on Wall Street, it's nice to be reminded of what Main Street America is all about.

Community banks are the backbone of American economy, providing local business loans, farm loans and home loans.

Community banks are strong, safe, secure and stable financial institutions focused on doing what is best for our customers and communities.

Your insured community bank deposits are safe. No one has ever lost a penny of deposits insured by the FDIC. If you are concerned about the safety of your money, talk to your local community banker to get the straight facts.
