

8 ways to be an ICBA advocate

ICBA needs community bankers' voices to help advance its legislative agenda. But don't worry: Advocacy doesn't have to be time consuming. Here are some ideas for how you can do your part.

Host

a member of Congress at your bank

Vote!

Call

your legislators
Capitol switchboard:
(202) 224-2131

Attend

the ICBA
Capital Summit, April 30–May 3 in Washington, D.C.
icba.org/summit17

Send

Action
Alert
emails

Connect

with an elected official
on social media

Encourage

colleagues to become ICBA
advocates

Write

a letter to the editor

Be Heard!

ICBA makes it easy to be an advocate for our industry. Visit icba.org/advocacy/grassroots-be-heard! to send Action Alert emails on current issues, access the advocacy toolbox and more.
